Global Citizenship Program 65

Education for Global Citizenship: What, Why, and How?

July 13 – 20, 2014

Pre-session Readings

Below are links to several articles and videos which participants are encouraged to read prior to the meeting in Salzburg. They provide an introduction to some ideas related to globalization, the concept of global citizenship, and recent trends in education for global citizenship.

- Developing Global Citizens

- Global Citizenship: What Are We Talking About and Why Does It Matter?

- Global Citizenship in Theory and Practice

- Curriculum: The Foundations for Global Education

- The Case for Global Civics

- Educating for global competence: bridging the “relevance gap” in contemporary education
Viewing List
Below are a few videos which we recommend that all participants view, think about, and discuss prior to the session.

- Changing Education Paradigms
  This animate was adapted from a talk given at the RSA by Sir Ken Robinson, world-renowned education and creativity expert and recipient of the RSA's Benjamin Franklin award.

- 21st Century Enlightenment
  Matthew Taylor explores the meaning of 21st century enlightenment, how the idea might help us meet the challenges we face today, and the role that can be played by organisations such as the RSA.

- Hans Rosling on global Population Growth
  This TED Talk examines the implications of the fact that the world’s population will reach 9 billion over the next 50 years and that only by raising the living standards of the poorest can we check population growth.
